Our New Location

Gives Us a Distinct Advantage in Serving Our Trade

The building is situated and constructed ideally for our use. We have always desired a corner location with side doors for receiving freight and delivering goods, thus not interfering with the front of the store and blocking main passage. We've wanted plenty of light and air and convenient arrangement for working rapidly and turning out orders quickly. We've wanted "the entire store on display" with all goods compactly arranged. We've wanted screens and glass protection of all goods. We've wanted everything clean and sanitary; no filth, no flies, no vermin, no cuddy-holes or catch-all places. We've wanted a cool place for our canned goods, cereals and other things affected by hot weather, which we have in our large basement.

We have all these things in our new store and are delighted with them, glad in our own behalf and glad for our customers. Our New Market is receiving splendid patronage and customers are continually telling us how pleased they are with our meats and pleased that we carry BEST QUALITY OF MEATS of all kinds, and handle them in the very cleanest way. Come to see us.

MYSTERIOUS WITNESS IN BEATTIE CASE

Tells Story Which, if True, Neutralizes Much of Prosecution's Evidence—Had Woman with Him with Whom He Was Not Acquainted.

[By Associated Press.]
Chesterfield, Va., Sept. 2.—Charles Kessleberg of Richmond, the mysterious witness who was discovered yesterday in the Beattie trial, came forward today with the declaration that it was he who was motoring on the Midlothian turnpike on the night of the murder and stopped his machine to get some water while a woman with him stood on the running board.

This testimony, if accepted as a fact, nullifies the evidence of the prosecution in many important respects because the commonwealth's attorneys held that it was the defendant who crouched in front of his machine while his wife stood on the running board and was shot, her fall causing the pool of blood in the road. A crowd of boy witnesses had testified that they saw a woman on the running board and a man in front. Kessleberg told of seeing boys pass and of their offering help. He said he had not come forward as a witness because he did not know the identity of the woman with him; that he gave her a ride, meeting her on the road, and that he is a married man. He said, however, he told his wife about it.

METAL HATS FOR MODISH WOMEN

Very Different from Gone-by Styles. Are Trimmed with Expensive Flowers, Fringes and Lace.

[By Associated Press.]
New York, Sept. 2.—The newest wonders in the windows of the Fifth avenue milliners are so-called metal hats which will be worn this fall by modish young women. Some are flat and broad, suggesting helmets. All are different from the styles of other years. They are expensive. Flowers, feathers, lace, fur, gold, silver and metal fringes; silver flowers, bronze flowers and gold and silver lace make up the trimming.

ROGER Q. MILLS DEAD

A Native of Kentucky—He Had a Long Career as Congressman and Senator—Was Confederate Veteran.

[By Associated Press.]

He was one of Texas' most noted statesmen, going to Congress in 1872 and serving continuously until elected senator in 1892, which latter position he resigned in 1899. Senator Culberson succeeded him. He was a noted Confederate veteran, serving as lieutenant colonel of the Tenth Texas Infantry and afterward commanding several regiments. $100,000 a Room.

Tarrytown, N. Y., Sept. 2.—One hundred thousand dollars a room is the estimated cost of the addition to be built on the Rockefeller mansion here, work on which has just commenced. There will be ten rooms in all, costing about $1,000,000. For two years the Pocantico Hills mansion will remain closed, while the building is in progress.

Big Crowd in Town.

Bryan was "old business" today. There was a very large crowd in town and trading was brisk. The cotton pickers by the hundreds had been paid off and all had a pocket full of money, and they spent it freely. From now until after the holidays business will be fine.
